LONDON, SATURDAY, November, 28, 1730. NUMB. XXXIII.

To the AUTHOR of the WEEKLY REGISTER.

SCIENCE in gay, attractive FABLE lies,
And VEIL'D, the more invites her Lover's Eyes.
POPE's Miſcell.

SIR,

"PRECEPTS, ſays Mr. de la Motte, "that are too open and direct, and de-"liver'd in a dogmatical, imperious "Manner, have little or no Influence "on the Mind. Man is by Nature of "a proud Diſpoſition, and jealous of "his Freedom; he muſt be entreated, "not compell'd to liſten to Inſtruction: "He will never aim at Amendment, if his Reformation "muſt be the Reſult of a ſervile Obedience. However he "is not untractable, and is pleas'd to be directed with Mo-"deſty and good Manners." There is nothing, in the Opinion of the late celebrated Mr. Addiſon, ſo difficult, as the Art of making Advice agreeable. "How many Devices ſays "he, have both antient and modern Writers made uſe of, "to render this bitter Potion palatable? Some convey their "Inſtructions to us in the beſt choſen Words; Others, in the "moſt harmonious Numbers; ſome, in Points of Wit, "and Others, in ſhort Proverbs. But amongſt all the "different Ways of giving Counſel, the ſineſt, and that "which pleaſes the moſt univerſally, is FABLE, in what-"ſoever Shape it appears. This Way of Inſtruction excells "all others; becauſe it is the leaſt ſhocking, and the leaſt "Subject to Exception." There is however, in my Opinion, a ſtill ſtronger, and more prevailing Argument for Fable than all this; and that is, that the Prophets themſelves, who were favour'd with immediate Inſpiration from Heav'n, made choice of this allegorical Method to reclaim the moſt arbitrary Princes, and correct their Vices. A remarkable Inſtance of their Succeſs this Way, Mr. Bellamy has artfully introduc'd in the Preface to his New Tranſlation of the late celebrated Archbiſhop of Cambray's moſt beautiful Fictions, which not long ſince was dedicated to his Highneſs the preſent Duke of Cumberland, and honour'd with his gracious Reception. "Had Nathan of old, ſays he, notwithſtanding "his divine Commiſſion, inſulted King David, and in direct "Terms declar'd he was a Tyrant, and an Adulterer, in all "human Probability, he had prov'd unſucceſsful in his Er-"rand. But with what Dexterity and Addreſs does the "Prophet conceal the Severity of his intended Reproof? By "a fictitious Tale how eaſily does he gain the Attention of "his unguarded Maſter? How does the Monarch's Indig-"nation and Reſentment riſe at the imaginary Malefactor? "With what Zeal does he promiſe to ſee Juſtice done to "the Party injur'd? And at laſt, when the Curtain's drawn, "how deep does the Reflection ſink into his Soul, and with "what true Contrition does he humble himſelf before the "Almighty?" What I principally aim at in ſending you theſe curſory Remarks is, to recommend to You and the Publick, a New Collection of Fables, in familiar Verſe, which are propos'd in a ſhort Time to be printed by Subſcription with proper Cuts, and other curious and uncommon Decorations, for the Uſe of Schools, by a particular Friend of mine, who has for many Years liv'd retir'd in the Country, and made the Education of Youth his principal Study and Employment. As Compoſitions of this Nature are very proper Amuſements for your Paper; and as my Friend, in his printed Propoſals, has only produc'd a Specimen of the intended Embelliſhments; I have herewith ſent you enclos'd his Introduction, with two of his Fables, which I beg the Favour of you to inſert in your next Regiſter, as a Specimen of the Work. Your Compliance with this Requeſt will not only be an Act of common Juſtice to obſcure Merit, but, I doubt not, an acceptable Entertainment to moſt of your moral Readers.

I am, Yours, &c. L L.

The PROLOGUE to the FIRST BOOK of PHAEDRUS his FABLES, Paraphraſed, by Way of PREFACE.

Ratione, non vi, Vincenda eſt Adoleſcentia. SENECA.

Happy the Youth, who are betimes ſet right,
And taught the Rules of Virtue with delight;
By gay Allurements generous Minds are won;
By rigid Doctrines very few or none.
The Cynick TUTOR fruitleſs Leſſons reads:
He, who gilds o'er his Precepts, beſt ſucceeds.

I.

READER, theſe little pleaſant TALES
In eaſy Verſe diſpos'd,
Are none of MINE: — Iv'e only dreſt
Æſop in MASQUERADE.

II.

No PLAN was ever better form'd
Betimes to ſet Youth right;
In theſe Amuſements you will find
Inſtruction and Delight.

III.

But ſhould our ſocial Beaſts and Trees
The Critick's Cenſure raiſe;
His Spleen we ſcorn: — A Moral Thought
In Fiction merits praiſe.

Art improves Nature; Or, Manners makes the Man.

——— ingenuas didiciſſe fideliter artes,
Emollit Mores nec ſinit eſſe Feras. OVID.

Children, like tender Oziers, take the Bow,
And as they once are faſhion'd, always grow.
DRYDEN.

The Young Crows and the Eaglets.

ART, and aſſiduous Care muſt join,
To make the Works of Nature ſhine:
The richeſt Ground, moſt fertile Field
No Crop, if unmanur'd, will yield.
Too ſure th' inactive Peaſant ſpies
Brambles inſtead, and Thiſtles riſe:
Whilſt the moſt ſtony, barren Soil,
(By artful Management and Toil)
Becomes a pleaſant, plenteous Plain,
And crowns the Labours of the Swain.
Th' ambitious Bird, we often find,
(If Nature in its Birth proves kind)
Above her native Sphere will riſe,
And mount, well taught, the azure Skies.
On the Neglect, or Care of Friends,
Our future Good, or Ill depends.
This Propoſition I'll maintain,
And by an Apologue explain.

I.

In a wide Foreſt on a Rock
An Eagle built her Neſt;
There laid ſix Eggs of beauteous Form,
Which their high Birth confeſt.

II.

Within the Shade of a tall Oak,
Which to the Rock adjoin'd,
A Crow too laid ſix homely Eggs,
According to her Kind.

III.

By magic Art ſome envious Fiend,
Unſeen, theſe Eggs had laid
Into the Eagle's Neſt, and hers
Beneath the Crow convey'd.

IV.

Unthought of Chance! Both hatch'd their Young,
And rear'd 'em as their own;
No Wonder Birds might be deceiv'd! ——
What Father knows his Son?

V.

The new-born Crows with Pheaſants fill'd,
Soon fatten, and grow gay;
The Eaglets, fed with putrid Worms,
Dejected, pine away.

VI.

Their very Natures thus tranſform'd,
As bred, they ſink and riſe:
Theſe downwards gaze upon the Plains;
Whilſt Theſe ſurvey the Skies.

VII.

All fledg'd at length, and fully plum'd,
For their firſt Flight prepare;
Each Party ſteers a various Courſe,
Under their Guardian's Care.

VIII.

Boldly the Eagle ſoars aloft,
With Pride the young ones riſe;
Prove their Deſcent: on Phœbus gaze
Unhurt, with ſtedfaſt Eyes.

IX.

Pleas'd with th' Eſſay, ſhe thus addreſt
Her brave, tho' ſpurious Race:
"My deareſt Off-ſpring, mark Me well,
"And all my Footſteps trace.

X.

"Behold my active, bold Exploits,
"My arbitrary Sway!
"How the Birds tremble at my Sight!
"With Eaſe become my prey!

XI.

"See! how to gratify your Taſt,
"I ſink into the Plain;
"Undaunted, ſeize the bounding Doe,
"Which ſtruggles, but in vain!

XII.

"The Call of Nature thus obey'd,
"From thence to Heav'n I rove,
"Mix with the Gods, and by Command,
"Dart down the Bolts of Jove.

XIII.

The Crows, with great Ambition fir'd,
Range all around the Skies;
As Eaglets taught, as Eaglets act,
And make the Birds their Pride.

XIV.

Whilſt the poor Eaglets tow'r their Wings,
And lodge within the Vales;
Void of the leaſt ambitious Thought: ——
So ill Advice prevails!

XV.

"Feed, quoth th' old Crow, and be content,
"On what you here can find;
"But what requires great Pains to reach,
"Leave prudently behind.

XVI.

"Nice'r aim to mount the Skies; — Nor break
"For diſtant Joys your Reſt:
"Indulge your-ſelves; — Fools only toil; ——
"What's got with Eaſe is beſt.

XVII.

By theſe vile Principles miſled,
Under their ſlothful Guide,
The Eaglets, like unactive Drones,
Loſt all their native Pride.
This the Effects of EDUCATION ſhews;
The CROWS grew EAGLES, and the EAGLETS, CROWS.

CRISPIN Demoliſh'd; Or, the Sham-Doctor.

——————Opiferque per Orbem
Dicor.——————
——————Caveat Emptor.

A QUACK too ſcandalouſly mean to Name
Had by Man-Midwifry, got Wealth and Fame;
As if LUCINA had forgot her Trade;
The lab'ring Wife invokes his ſurer Aid:
Well ſeaſon'd Bowls the Goſſip's Spirits raiſe,
Who, while ſhe guzzles, chats the DOCTOR's Praiſe;
And largely, what ſhe wants in Words, ſupplies
With Maudlin-Eloquence of trickling Eyes.
But what a thoughtleſs Animal is Man!
How very active in his own Trepan!
For greedy of Phyſician's frequent Fees,
From female mellow Praiſe he takes Degrees;
Struts in a new unlicens'd Gown, and then
From ſaving Women falls to killing Men.
Ld. Roſc.

I.

CRISPINUS once turn'd MOUNTEBANK,
As his laſt Shift for Bread;
And to a diſtant Market-Town,
Where none e'er knew him, fled:

II.

There on a Stage conſpicuous ſtood;
No Beau was better dreſt:
And verſ'd in Æſculapian Cant
He thus the Mob addreſt.

III.

"Pray, Gentlemen, Attention give,
"This Pill's a Non-pareil;
"Tho' Poiſons ſhould infeſt your Maſs,
"Swallow but This, you're well.

IV.

"Howe CUPID's Fires glow'd long within;
"This Box his Flames allay:
"Have you the Cholick, Gout, or Stone,
"This drives all Pains away.

V.

"The Lame, the Blind, the Dumb, the Deaf,
"Incurables I cure;
"What ÆSCULAPIAN bred in Town,
"Can do, or promiſe more?

VI.

"Beſides, my Med'cines pleaſe the Taſt,
"Like Cordials warm the Blood;
"I ſtudy not for private Ends,
"But for the publick Good.

VII.

" Each ſingle Doſe is worth a Pound;
" Depend on my Advice:
" Safe is the Cure, the Charge is ſmall;
" But Sixpence is my Price.

VIII.

His Silver Tongue charm'd all the Crowd;
So well he play'd his Game,
That ſoon they fill'd his empty Purſe;
But ſooner ſpread his Fame.

IX.

Juſt at that Time the MAY'R was ill,
And for the Doctor ſent;
CRISPIN, with an audacious Front,
As ſoon as order'd went.

X.

Doctor, your Servant, cry'd the May'r,
Here's Rat's-bane well prepar'd;
Drink this. —— Convince me of your Art,
And I'll your Art reward.

XI.

Trembling, the QUACK ſurvey'd the Glaſs,
And unprepar'd to dye,
Confeſt himſelf an Errant Cheat,
And did the Draught deny.

XII.

Sternly the May'r look'd round the Room: ——
Is this your Man ſo famous?
Why, Neighbours, will ye truſt your Lives
With ſuch an IGNORAMUS.
The Application.
The bold Pretender's oft' careſt,
Thro' Impudence prevails;
Shines in the Court, or in the Camp
Whilſt modeſt Merit fails.

" Our Society return their kind Correſpondent many " Thanks for this friendly Aſſiſtance, and heartily wiſh his " Friend, whoever he be, all the good Succeſs, which ſuch " inſtructive, gay, and innocent Amuſements juſtly deſerve. " Our Society likewiſe return their Thanks to ſeveral other " kind Correſpondents, but particularly to Mr. A. Z. who has " oblig'd us with a large Parnaſſian Packet."

Count Degenfeldt, deſigns ſhortly to make a ſplendid Entertainment for all foreign Miniſters, at his Houſe in St. James's-Square, on Account of the Reconciliation between the King his Maſter and the Prince Royal of Pruſſia.

Extract of a Letter from Cambridge, dated Nov. 24.

This Day was brought to our Caſtle two of the travelling Villains that extort Money by Letters and Threats; they came out of Bedfordſhire to Gamlingay, with a falſe Paſs to the Conſtable, who relieved them, but afterwards they demanded further Supplies and Lodging, which being deny'd, they told him the Town ſhould lie in Aſhes before Morning; the Conſtable being ſurpriſed, follow'd them, with a Deſign to apprehend them, which they perceiving, return'd upon him, and had like to have murder'd him, before any Aſſiſtance came; after which both were ſeized and examined, and divers falſe Seals and Paſſes were found upon them; and they ſeem to be deſperate enough to execute any Thing that Wickedneſs can tempt them to. 'Tis reported that theſe Fellows ſent ſeveral Letters in Bedfordſhire, and were purſu'd for them; ſo that it is hoped the Neſt of Incendiaries in theſe Parts will be diſcover'd.

Many abominable Letters, have been ſent to many Perſons, in Town and Country by the Incendiaries, but being too numerous we forbear troubling our Readers with them.

Rob. &c. On Tueſday laſt in the Evening, Mr. John Mabell, Surgeon, was robb'd by three Foot-pads a little beyond Iſlington, who took from him 7 Guineas, 6*s.* a Silver Watch, and his Caſe of Inſtruments; they alſo took from him his Saddle Bags, in which were half a Dozen Shirts, a Pair of Shoes and a Pair of Silver Buckles.——The ſame Evening one Peter Whorwood, Servant to Sam. Read, Eſq; of Hackney, having been at Clerkenwell, was robb'd in his Return home between Bunhill-Fields and Iſlington, by two Foot-pads, of 13*s.* 3*d.* The Rogues beat him in a barbarous Manner, and left him dead.——Yeſterday an Iriſhman, formerly Cook at the Ship Tavern, near Charing-Croſs, was committed to the Gatehouſe by the Bench of Juſtices, on Suſpicion of ſending ſome of the threatning Letters.——Jane Taylor was committed ro Newgate, by Juſtice Phillips, on the Oath of Eliz. Samſon, for ſtealing a Sheet, a Gown, &c.——Rich. Adcock was committed to Newgate by Juſtice Gifford, on the Oath of Mary Jefferſon, for vending at two ſeveral Times, falſe and counterfeited Shillings.

Pref. The Rev. Mr. Taff, is preſented by his Grace the Duke of Bedford to the Rectory of St. Paul's Covent-Garden.

Deaths. Yeſterday died Joſhua Pearing, Jun. Eſq; Son of Tho. Pearing, late of Bow-Church-Yard, Eſq; aged 31 Years.——Laſt Sunday, died Mrs. Suſanna Stables, Wife of Edw. Stables of Wandſworth in Surrey, Eſq; by whoſe Death an Eſtate of 600l per Ann. devolves to Mr. John De Berdt, her Son by a former Husband.——Laſt Monday Mrs. Champion's Corps was carried in great Funeral Pomp out of Town, to be interr'd at Melton Mowbray in Leiceſterſhire. She left by her Will to ſix poor Women whom ſhe maintain'd in an Almſhouſe at Melton Mowbray, Grey Gowns, &c. and they are to ſupport her Pall.

FRIDAY, November 27.

Yeſterday was held a Court of Ld. Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council at Guildhall, when a Motion was made in the handſomeſt Manner, That the Thanks of the Court be given to Sir Rich. Brocas, late Ld. Mayor of this City, for his diligent, prudent, and impartial Diſcharge of that high Office, and his tender Regard to the Rights, Priviledges, and true Intereſt of his Fellow-Citizens ſhewn upon all Occaſions, more eſpecially by giving frequent Opportunities of Promoting the Good and Welfare of this Corporation in Common Council. — Which Motion the Court paſs'd into a Reſolution, Nem. Con.

The ſame Day about four a Clock in the Afternoon a Meſſenger was diſpatched from the D. of Newcaſtle's Office at Whitehall for Seville, with ſome Diſpatches for Benj. Keene, Eſq; his Majeſty's Miniſter to the K. of Spain.

Laſt Night the R. Hon. the Ld. Harrington, one of his Majeſty's Principal Sec. of State, gave a magnificent Entertainment at his New Houſe at St. James's, to ſeveral foreign Miniſters and other Perſons of Diſtinction.

The ſame Day as her Majeſty was walking in St. James's-Park, a Woman, ſuppos'd to be diſorder'd in her Senſes, abuſed her Majeſty very groſly; upon which the Centinel near Roſamond's Pond took her into Cuſtody; and being examined by the R. Hon. the E. of Eſſex, ſhe was confined to the Lodge at Whitehall, in Order to her farther Examination before the Board of Green-Cloth this Day.

This Day John Huggins, Eſq; late Warden of the Fleet, will be brought up to the Court of King's-Bench, Weſtm. to receive the Judgment of the Court upon the ſpecial Verdict.

Our Merchants have Advice from Bermuda, that ſince the independant Company of Foot has been removed from that Iſland to Providence, which was in February laſt, the Negroes (who are in Number at leaſt five to one white Perſon) have aſſembled themſelves in a riotous Manner, and have poiſon'd many of the white People, ſome of whom are dead and many more lingering.

We hear that late laſt Night, a poor Quill-driver, with a Conic Chin, about the Size of a moderate Sugar-Loaf, who has for ſome Months paſt acted in the low Capacity of Amanuenſis to a High-German Doctor, was taken up on Suſpicion of being an Incendiary, and carried before Juſtice Wrong-head, a warm Puritanical Magiſtrate, by one W——s an active Conſtable, and a very worthy Member of the Society for Reformation of Manners, on the malicious Innuendo, inſerted in laſt Thurſday's Grub-ſtreet Journal. At Sight of the Malefactor, his Worſhip, (who is Chair-man of the witty Club at the Pegaſus) ſtrok'd his Beard, and with a Stern Look thus accoſted the Priſoner.

What have you to ſay for yourſelf Mr. Burn-all?——
You are charg'd, upon Oath, by the Grubs, in their Journal.

The Priſoner's DEFENCE.

Such hot-headed Tricks I ne'er bore a Part in,
'Tis all, Sir, the Malice of Gliſter-pipe M——n;
Or elſe the Conundrum, and impudent Jeſt
Of R——l, their Puppy, and Nonj—g Prieſt.
As I hope to be ſav'd, there's no Truth at all in't, Sir.
The Q——r wont ſwear it, nor can P——r the P——r.

Sirrah, ſays his Worſhip, I am ſure you are the Man, theſe are Low-Dutch Verſes. I'll make out his Mittimus. But firſt, now I think on't;—Here, Goſe-quill, bring in the Pen and Ink.—The Sorry Raſcal ſhall write down the Verſes, and then we ſhall have Mathematical Demonſtration. I don't ſuppoſe the illiterate Varlet can ſpell one Word of his Defence. With an Aching Heart, and Paralytic Hand, poor Pill-garlick obey'd his Political Orders; but, more by good Luck, than any good Cunning, making no Orthographical Blunder, and a Perſon of Qualities, who was accidentally preſent, clearing up his Character, he was, tho' ſore againſt the Grain, very honourably acquitted, and adviſ'd by his Friend, to proſecute the whole Grubean Society for Scandalum Magnatum.

Rob. &c. Laſt Wedneſday Evening an Officer belonging to the Sheriff of Eſſex, was robbed near Grayes in Eſſex, by two Highwaymen, who took from him a Watch and 6*s.* and one of the Highwaymen changed Horſes with the Officer.

Pref. It is reported that Dr. Freind, Maſter of Weſt. School, and Rector of Whitney in Oxfordſhire, who laſt Year had a Canonry of Windſor beſtow'd upon him, will alſo be made a Prebendary of Weſt. and that by ſpecial Favour he will be permitted to hold both theſe great Prebends.

Deaths. Yeſterday died Mrs. Harman, Wife of Capt. Harman, at his Houſe in Holles-Street, near Cavendiſh-Square.——Yeſterday Morning died of the Aſthma and Dropſy Mr. Gabriel Tabourdin, an eminent Italian Merchant of this City, reputed to be worth 50,000l.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Arrived Mails.——Saturday, that due from Holland.——Tueſday, that due from France.

FROM Poland we learn, that all that has been ſaid about the Acceſſion of King Auguſtus, to the Treaty of Seville, as Elector of Saxony, is altogether groundleſs; and that his Poliſh Majeſty has declar'd that he never had any Thoughts of that Acceſſion, but was reſolv'd to fulfil all Engagements he had enter'd into with the Emperor.

From Berlin, that his Pruſſian Majeſty is reconcil'd to his Son; that ſeveral chief Miniſters of Pruſſia carried by the King's Order, the Draught of an Oath for the Prince to tranſcribe and ſign with his own Hand, and afterwards to take in Form, to aſſure the King of his Fidelity for the future; that the Prince was allow'd 24 Hours to conſider of the Terms, and that having anſwer'd at the Expiration of that Time, that he was ready to do whatever the King his Father commanded him, the Govern. of Kuſtrin return'd him his Sword, and the Enſigns of his Order, the Star whereof had been taken off his Clothes. The Prince took the Oath, and ſubſcrib'd it, which was immediately ſent Expreſs to the King; whereupon ſolemn Thanks were return'd the Sunday following, for this happy Reconciliation, and it is the general Opinion, that his R. H. will ſoon appear at Court with greater Luſtre than ever.

From Rome we hear, that the Pope being deſirous to retrench the Luxury prevailing in that City, and other Places of the Eccleſiaſtical Territories, has publiſh'd an Edict, ſtrictly prohibiting the Wear of Gold or Silver Brocades, and alſo of Galoons, Fringes, or Embroidery of thoſe Metals, by any Perſons whatſoever.

Hague, Nov. 3. Our private Letters from the Court of Berlin inform us, that the K. of Pruſſia had held an extraordinary Council of War a few Leagues from Wuſterhauſen, to which his Majeſty ordered Gen. Schulemburg and three other Generals to be ſummoned, beſides the uſual Members, and Notice to be given them in their Summons, that it was to conſider of ſome ſpecial and important Affair. And at the Breaking up of this Council, his Majeſty ſent Couriers to the Governors of Weſel, Meurs, Gelder, and all his other Frontiers of theſe Provinces, to ſet Men to work upon the Fortifications Night and Day, notwithſtanding the Winter, and even (which is not his Majeſty's ordinary Style) without ſparing for any Coſt. Theſe Advices being confirmed by Letters from Mynheer Ginkel, their High-Mightineſſes Miniſter at the Court of Pruſſia, have occaſioned no little Uneaſineſs here, and (it is thought) will accelerate the Augmentation of the Forces of the State.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

For the BENEFIT of all ſuch as are afflicted with that unhappy Diſtemper, commonly call'd the EVIL; this publick Notice is given.

WHEREAS I Joſeph Tibbitt, Citizen of London and Butcher, living in St. John's-Lane, in the Pariſh of St. James Clerkenwel, and County of Middleſex, have a Nephew (now upwards of Eight Years of Age) who for above three Years paſt has been very ſorely afflicted with the EVIL, and after making repeated Trials of Surgeons, and others, for upwards of Two Years, to the inexpreſſible Torture of the Child, but without any Cure, I at laſt applied to Mrs. MILLER, School Miſtreſs, next Door to Mr. Warburton's, near the Church at Watford, in Hartfordſhire, who by the Bleſſing of God on her Endeavours, has almoſt effected a perfect Cure of him, to the Aſtoniſhment of all that know him. She has brought away ſeveral corrupted Bones, ſome an Inch long, ſome more, and others leſs; and reſtored him to very near as good a ſtate of Health as he enjoy'd before this EVIL happen'd to him, and I do not doubt her completing it.

I therefore think my ſelf oblig'd, for the Benefit of the many Perſons who labour under like Misfortunes, to give this publick Notice, as well as to do juſtice to the Skill and Care of the ſaid Mrs. MILLER. Witneſs my Hand this 27th Day of November 1730. JOSEPH TIBBETT.

N. B. The Truth of the above Narrative will be atteſted, and more fully explain'd, by the ſaid Mr. Tibbitt, or Mrs. Miller, under whoſe Care the Child ſtill is, where the Bones that came from him may be ſeen, by any Perſon who will pleaſe to call at Watford aforeſaid.

This Day is Publiſhed.
